THE FIRST STANDARD FULL HYBRID PICKUP IN AMERICA.

Familiar paths lead to familiar outcomes. Ford engineers took the Maverick™ pickup truck in a bold direction by making it the first pickup with a standard 2.5L Full Hybrid engine. The 2.5L Atkinson-cycle full hybrid engine is mated with a smooth shifting CVT transmission for an EPA-estimated rating of 42 city mpg.¹ That's efficiency that impresses, day in and day out. And with 191 horsepower, a Tow/Haul Selectable Drive Mode, and a standard towing capacity of 2,000 lbs.,² there's power to tow your personal watercraft or a pair of dirt bikes as well.

EPA-ESTIMATED RANGE OF 500 MILES³

You can cover a lot of territory in 500 miles. That's the EPA-estimated range³ of travel on one tank of gas with the 2.5L Full Hybrid engine in Maverick pickup. And if your adventures remain in the city, you're all set there with an EPA-estimated 42 city mpg.¹ So whether you vacay or staycay, the Maverick pickup can handle it.

BUILT FORD TOUGH.

Built Ford Tough® values are the ties that bind the doers of the world with the trucks that get things done. They motivate the creativity of our designers, the ingenuity of our engineers, and affect nearly every component, part and assembly that goes into Built Ford Tough trucks. They're the call to test our trucks to the limit, and the duty to stand the test. They span millions of miles, and they've helped make F-Series® America's best-selling trucks for 44 years.¹ Put any of our trucks to the test and discover what Built Ford Tough means to you.

ENGINEERED FOR EXTREMES

The Maverick™ pickup architecture has endured 19 million miles of customer equivalent durability testing in real world, lab and proving ground environments. It's been tested in extreme weather, taken over off-road durability tests, endured harsh chassis tuning, and much more. After these tests, it's more than ready for yours.

DECADES OF TRUCK EXPERIENCE

Backed by over 100 years of Ford Truck engineering expertise, there's no doubt the all-new Ford Maverick pickup meets the legendary standards of Built Ford Tough.

UNIBODY CONSTRUCTION

The unibody construction of Ford Maverick has its advantages. With body and frame in one piece, Maverick has a controlled, on-road presence and instills confidence on the highway as well as when the road gets rough. Plus, the unibody construction helps deliver excellent steering precision, nimble urban driving and does not experience the harsh ride of some body-on-frame pickup trucks.

CLEAN, EFFICIENT DESIGN

There's no gap between the cab and tailgate on Maverick, and the bed rail caps extend from the bed and go vertical, ending at the top of the back window. This design helps enhance dent and ding protection, knowing people will load and unload the bed from the sides more frequently.

¹. Best-selling trucks for 44 years based on 1977-2020 CY total sales.
